Re: United States v. Samuel Israel III, 05 Cr. 1039

Dear Judge McMahon:

This firm represents Samuel Israel III in the above-referenced matter. On February 13, 2007, Your Honor granted Mr. Israel's request that he be permitted to travel to visit his ailing father between February 18 and February 22, 2007. Despite the Court's consent as well as the consent of the U.S. Attorney's Office, Mr. Israel did not travel in February.

Because he was unable to visit his father in February, Mr. Israel would like to travel to New Orleans between March 28 and April 7, 2007 to visit his parents. He plans to bring his teenage son with him so that his son may visit his grandfather. The trip will be paid for by Mr. Israel's parents, and Mr. Israel will provide a detailed itinerary of the trip to pre-trial services.

By this letter, we ask the Court to modify Mr. Israel's conditions of release to allow him to visit his family in New Orleans from March 28-April 4, 2007. I have raised this request with AUSA Perry Carbone, who consents to this application.

Respectfully submitted,

Barbara L. Trencher
